It is now fully understood and agreed, as heretofore the management, with the concurrence of the trustees, have determined to allow ninety days more for the sale of the remnant of tickets left on hand. The concert and distribution advertised for April 8, is therefore postponed to Tuesday, July 3, at which time, and no other, they will positively and unequivocally be drawn.

The money to pay all these gifts in full is now deposited in the Farmers' and Drayton's Bank of Louisville, and is set aside for that purpose, and can only be used for that purpose, as will be seen by the following certificate of the cashier:

The receipt of paid tickets will be furnished to those who first apply orders as accompanied by the money always having preference over agents at the following prices: Whole tickets, $10; halves, $5; and quarters, $2.50. 11 whole tickets for $100, $6 for $600, $11 for $1,000, and $15 for $5,000. No tickets on less than $100 worth of ticks at a time.

The concert and distribution of gifts will begin at 6 o'clock on Tuesday morning, July 3, in Public Library hall, and the following will be the order of proceedings: 1st, music by orchestral band, 2d, placing of tags (one for each ticket sold) in boxes, 3d, placing of large white tags in hands of committee appointed by audience, 4th, grand orchestra.

The music on this grand occasion will be the best that can be procured, and the gentlemen who count and place the tags and gifts in the wheels and superintend the drawing and keep the record of the drawn names, will be from the most known and most trustworthy citizens of the state. All will be so conducted as to be a perfect guarantee against complaint from any just source.

The payment of gifts will begin on Saturday evening, July 3, at 8 o'clock. The drawing gifts must be presented at room No. 4 Public Library building, where cash checks upon the Farmers' and Drayton's bank of Louisville, or sight drafts upon the Fourth National bank of New York, at the option of the drawer, will be given for the tickets. All gifts not paid for in six months from the drawing will be turned over to the Public Library fund.

THE PREACHER-SENATOR OF TENNESSEE.

PARSON BROWNLOW'S SCATHING LETTER TO GEN. D. H. HILL.

DEFENSE OF THE DEAD CANDY AND THOMA.

From the Knoxville, Tenn., Chronicle. To D. H. Hill, late Lieutenant General of the Rebel Army:

Sir—An article of yours which recently appeared in the Charlotte (N. C.) Home, of which you are the editor, I find you make an attack upon the character of the late Gen. Candy and other deceased officers of the United States Army. In this editorial you do me the honor to bitterly denounce me. I say honor, for I esteem it an honor for any man who has been loyal to his country to be blackguarded and vilified by you. Were I so unfortunate as to be the recipient of your commendation I should feel like examining, as did Socrates, when apiduated by a bad man like yourself.

What crime have I committed? You exist over the death of the brave Candy, assassinated by savages attribute his death with that of Abraham Lincoln, John Brown, Stanton, Geo. H. Thomas, Prof. Maxey, and others, ex-senator Preston King of Tennessee, and that late Senator Lane of Kansas, to a traitor of God, because in the late civil war they opposed the effort to destroy the government of the United States.

You say of General Candy that while he was in command at Richmond, Va., he personally superintended the hanging of a white man up by the thumbs for kicking an innocent negro. Now this is your version of Candy's conduct, and the whole editorial you have written breathes such harsh and brutal spirit as to make you unworthy of credit.

Besides this, Gen. Hill, the whole life of Candy gives lie to your assertion that he did anything vulgar, infamous or unbecoming a high-toned soldier. Candy was a man of learning and ability and a Christian gentleman as well as a model soldier. I am not prepared to deny that within Candy's department a white man was tied up by the thumbs. While he was commanding at Richmond a negro under the constitution of the United States as amended, when Candy was sworn to support, was entitled to all the rights and privileges of other citizens. As a West Pointer and an officer of the United States army before the war, you know that to tie a man up by the thumbs was a common mode of punishment in the army, and Candy failed in his best of drink.

Nervous is hereby given that I will pay no bills for goods sold to any of the employees of THE CAIRO BULLETIN, either for themselves or for the use of the office unless the same are furnished on an order signed by Mr. Burnett or myself.

THE CHEAPEST.—Reliable articles of Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder and Special Flavorings, vanilla, lemon, orange, ginger, etc., that have stood the test of the best judges in the country, at a fair price are the cheapest in the long run if health is to be considered. Pure goods must have a fair valuation, adulterated articles are the only kind that can be sold cheap, and many dealers sell such mixtures in preference to strictly pure articles, as they afford a better profit.
